The Conference brings together a community of leading academic representatives from Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Finland, Russia, Austria, Ireland, Germany and other countries as well as diplomats, researchers, journalists and students to discuss issues of history, international law and foreign policy.

PROGRAMME (subject to change):

10.00 Bank of Estonia presentation of commemorative 2 euro coin “Tartu Peace Treaty 100”
10.50 Welcome remarks
Mr Urmas Reinsalu, Minister of Foreign Affairs
11.00 The Tartu Peace Treaty of 1920: historical importance
Discussion moderated by Dr Kaarel Piirimäe, Associate Professor, Institute of History and Archaeology, University of Tartu
12.30-13.30 Lunch
13.30-15.00 Questions of international law related to the Tartu Peace Treaty
Discussion moderated by Prof. Lauri Mälksoo, Professor of International Law, University of Tartu
15.00-15.30 Coffee break
15.30-17.00 Foreign policy today: the security of small states in today’s turbulent world
Discussion moderated by Dr Kristi Raik, Director, Estonian Foreign Policy Institute (EFPI)
17.00 Concluding remarks

We look forward seeing you in Tartu.

Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Estonia vmtarturahu100@mfa.ee, phone +372 637 7177